INTRODUCING TO THE USA—DIRECT FORM EMILIA-ROMAGNA, ITALY* LA PIADINA ROMAGNOLA

The classical piadina romagnola is rolled out thinly with a rolling pin, placed on a low-rimmed terracotta plate (whose shape is rather primitive) and cooked on burning embers. You get a large circular disk, speckled brown by the heat, which is crumbly, tender with a very delicate flavor, and is best eaten with good local cured meat, fresh, soft cheese, wild herbs and a generous glass of Sangiovese wine
